MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Security of CIA sensitive papers

1. At a meeting of the PSB Staff held at 12 noon today, I expressed my concern with respect to the high degree of security which I felt should be exercised by the members of the PSB Staff who had access to certain sensitive papers originating in the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. I brought this point out emphatically this morning in connection with a preliminary TS report which [ ] had delivered to Mr. Mallory Browne. Later, [ ] and I received Mr. Browne's assurance that the document in question would be read only by himself, the Director, and the Assistant Director.

3. With respect to a second paper which was passed to Mr. Mallory Browne and which will probably become a covert annex to a PSB report to the NSC senior staff, I stipulated that no one, with the exception of the three persons mentioned earlier, members of the senior staff of NSC, and the Secretary of the NSC, should have access to this document.
